

ENGLISH DIAGNOSTIC TEST

SMA ALWILDAN ISLAMIC SCHOOL

Format : Interview

Duration : 10-15 minutes per student

Purpose : To test fluency, critical thinking, and Islamic application.

Instruction for Interviewers:

1. Start the interview by giving the Islamic greeting (Assalamualaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatu), accompanied by a warm smile. Make sure to create a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere so that the student feels comfortable and confident before answering the questions.
2. Deliver each question clearly, speak at a moderate pace, and check that the student understands the question before moving on. Encourage the student to explore their answers without rushing them.
3. Once the interview is finished, give the student a few words of motivation. End with a friendly note such as: "See you in the class, insha Allah. We hope you enjoy the school, and may Allah guide you and grant you easiness in learning."
4. Finally, don't forget to fill in the score sheet carefully and submit the results through the link provided by the committee. Always follow the scoring guide to ensure fairness and consistency.

Interview Questions (open-ended for exploration):

1. Introduction

- Assalamu'alaikum, can you tell me about yourself?
- What motivates you to study at Al-Wildan Islamic School?

2. Personal Reflection

- What is one challenge you faced in school, and how did you overcome it?
- Which positive habits do you think is the hardest to practice, and why?

3. Islamic Application

- The Prophet ﷺ said: "The best of you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it." How do you think this applies to your life as a student?
- If you become a leader in your class, how will you practice fairness ('adl) and responsibility (amanah)?

4. Critical Thinking

- Some students feel stressed about exams. What advice would you give them?
- What can you say to young people in facing modern challenges (technology, social media)?

5. Explaining

Choose one of the following topics and speak for 2–3 minutes:

- a) My role as a Muslim student in today's world.
- b) A story when I did social service (either at school, at the mosque, or in your neighborhood)
- c) A person I admire and why (you may choose a Prophet, CEO or family member).

👉 Note for interviewer: Give students time to explore their answers, don't interrupt, and encourage them with follow-up prompts like "Can you give me an example?" or "Why do you think so?"
